

MARCH 2019

letter

Dear parents and carers,

As we come to the end of the Spring term, there are just a few important reminders to pass on:

No concert this term

Due to exams, the last official week of PAM won't be a concert week. However, parents are very welcome to watch choir and orchestra in the final week, where we'll do mini performances at 6:45 and 8:15. All other lessons will continue as normal, and during this time you'll have the chance to speak to James if you want to.

Exam preparation on 3rd April (compulsory)

On April 3rd, there will be an exam preparation session for everyone who is getting ready for their exam this term. *Please note that if you are taking an exam this is not optional*, and will be crucial for practising with accompaniment and for the musical knowledge/aural parts of the exams. Also, parents of those taking exams will be contacted this week about exam fees. These should be paid before 6th April. If anyone has any queries please get in touch.

We have contacted the parents/carers of everyone who is doing an exam, so if we haven't been in touch about exams, that means your child isn't doing an exam this time.

Summer term dates & Trip to Cambridge

PAM Summer term will start on Wednesday 24th April, and the last session will be on 3rd July. Half term break is on 29th May.

We will also be having our annual trip to Cambridge on Saturday 19th May. We had a fantastic time last year, and this year promises to be just as good, with a tour, workshop and performance with a leading musical director. Please block out the date now to avoid disappointment!

Best wishes
